

comment, satellite radio provides a necessary service for rural residents that must travel to metropolitan areas by providing traffic and weather reports. keep radio competitive.

if terrestrial broadcasters would provide better quality programming i would not have to buy paid satellite service, please reject the nab petition 04-160. let them compete and they should stop complaining!!! .

robert moore